Dear Friends,

Though the football season is over, our Gospel reading always brings me back to football because the lead verse is one that can be seen on signs in the end zone at many a game. (Although not as frequently as in the past, it seems to me). And I've always wondered why at football games and not basketball games or hockey games? And if anyone can answer that for me, I would appreciate it. And on a lawn on the road I take to get to the old Pascack Valley Hospital. Of course, the sign is, John 3:16, and it refers to what has often been called the most popular verse in Scripture. "God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life."

Over the course of these last Sundays, especially in the 1st Readings, the Church has presented to us a series of covenants that God has made with His creation. On the 1st Sunday of Lent, it was with Noah, that God would not destroy the earth with flood waters again. On the 2nd Sunday, it was with Abraham, that God would give him all the land that he could see before him and make his descendants as numerous as the stars of the sky. Last week it was with Moses and the whole Israelite community, in the form of the Ten Commandments, the Law, but, simultaneously, in last week's Gospel, God would make a new covenant in His Son, the Risen Christ, who would replace the Temple (symbol of that Law) and become, in his very Body, the New Covenant with the Father. And so, the Scripture readings were transitioning, from a focus on ourselves and our sins, to a focus on Jesus and what He has done for us for the forgiveness of those sins. This re-shifting is full-blown today. But we are not left out. In this dialogue with Nicodemus, we become interactive partners with Nicodemus, as Jesus invites us to make a choice for Him or against Him.

John 3:16 is certainly beautiful and comforting as it stands alone. But when we put it into the context of the whole episode with Nicodemus, the call to believe in Jesus involves so much more of us than the verse implies. In this usual way, John's words must be understood both for what they say and the symbolic message they transmit. Nicodemus comes to Jesus in the night, a recurring symbol in John of the darkness of mind and soul of the Jewish religion, a symbol of the lack of understanding and wisdom to see God at work in Jesus and a symbol of the power of the evil one (as later, when Judas leaves the supper in the night). This lack of understanding is made more specific in the earlier dialogue (not included in today's reading) when Jesus talks about being born again of water and the Spirit and Nicodemus can only think of crawling back into the womb. In a very direct way, Jesus challenges Nicodemus by asking him what kind of teacher of truth can he be if he does not understand these things. Only then do we come to the words of today's Gospel, as Jesus testifies to Nicodemus, and to us, God's purpose in sending His Son, with Jesus' own prediction—some will accept this and some will reject it.

Reading the whole passage, John 3:1-21, helps us to understand better the message the Church is trying to give us on this 4th Sunday of Lent. Here is the Good News, the reason we call this Laetare Sunday, the call to rejoice—God so loved the world that He sent His only Son. What will you do with it? Will you accept it, choose to live by it, and walk in the light? Or will you choose to reject it (if in actions and not specifically in words) and continue to walk in the darkness? More than half-way through Lent, what is your answer?

Nicodemus came to Jesus in the darkness. The Gospel doesn't explicitly say whether he left in the light, or was "born again." What would it say about you?

God Bless,
Fr. Ron

PS. On the material side. I've often shared with you that I am the longest serving member of the Board of Catholic Charities and I've just been re-appointed to another (and my last) three year term. Once again, the Board members have been asked to help Charities by selling raffle chances for the 50/50 drawing to be held at the Annual Gala, April 9th, honoring the State Council of the Knights of Columbus, for all the work the State and local Councils do in support of the needy and the disadvantaged, including the work of Catholic Charities. This year, they've given me 25 tickets but I didn't want to try to sell them until after the sale of tickets for the other two raffles, for our school and for our local K of C. As in the past, I am going to take two and if anyone wants to help, please email me at ronr@olmcridgewood.com or leave a message on my office phone, 201-444-2000, ext. 201. Thanks to anyone who can help. Tickets are $50/each and—only 500 will be sold!

STEWARDSHIP

"For God so loved the world that He gave us His only Son." Today's Gospel reading lays it on the line for us—of all the blessings God has given us (and who, in this area can deny that we are blessed), the greatest is the gift of His Son. How can we ever thank God enough for a gift like that? We can't, but we can show thanks by offering some of our own gifts, Time, Talent and Treasure, to carry on the work of the Son, building the Kingdom of God. Can you do that?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure last week was $15,940. The Stewardship of Treasure for the 4 weekends of February was $105,514. It was received as follows:

We Share, Online Giving:	$50,538
In Pew/Mailed to the Rectory	$54,976

Thank you for your support and may God bless your generosity and faithfulness. Online giving, WeShare, helps the parish better manage its resources. And, it's easier than remembering an envelope.

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration (PEA) is quiet adoration of the Blessed Sacrament—24 hours/day, 7 days/week—for almost 22 years now at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church. We have at least 168 Scheduled Adorers to cover this time, along with substitutes and many visitors each hour in quiet reflective prayer. It is very important that Jesus is not left alone in the Chapel. Jesus in the Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of our Christian life. This continuous prayer by all Adorers brings about abundant blessings to the faithful, to their loved ones, to the Church and to the community. Prayer power invokes the love, mercy and divine providence of God!

THURSDAY EVENING ROSARY
OUR LADY'S CHAPEL—7:30PM
ALL ARE WELCOME!

TODAY'S READINGS

1. 2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23

More than an accumulation of dates and events, history, for the Israelites, consisted in God's self-revelation to them and their response to God's presence. Israel's successes are seen as the result of its fidelity; its failures as the result of its infidelity. This excerpted passage records the collapse of the kingdom, even though a compassionate and forbearing God has continually tried to call them back and heal them through His messengers. Though the Chronicler describes Israel's destruction, the reading ends on a note of hope. God will provide an unexpected avenue for restoration, healing and renewal.

2. Ephesians 2:4-10

In this excerpted passage, Paul elaborates on the theological significance of Christ's death and resurrection for believers; raised with Him, brought to life in Him, saved in Him. Seated with Him. All is gift. And what follows this gift? Fruitfulness. Our good works are the fruit, not the cause of these many gifts, received from the hands of a God Who loves us.

3. John 3:14-21

In perhaps the most famous verse of the New Testament, John summarizes both the saving action of God and the motivation behind that action. It is the personal and profound love God has for the world in His Son, Jesus. In that love, God offers eternal life to all who would believe. That gift of eternal life is not a succession of time without end, but a life lived in the unending presence of God. It is a life that begins when the believer grasps this good gift of God in faith, not some unknown future. Offered by God, it must be chosen and accepted by the believer.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. With all that's happening in our world, the violence, the hatred, the acrimony, the social upheaval and chaos, isn't it hard to believe in a "God who so loved the world"? How can I come to grips with that doubt and resolve it?
2. "God so loved the world." Do I really believe in God's very personal and powerful love for me?
3. How can bearing a particular cross help me to grow spiritually?
