STEWARDSHIP

“For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” Jesus’ words in today’s Gospel reassure us that nothing He asks of us is impossible. When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our Time, Talent and Treasure. However, we must remember that we are not “owners” of anything; we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion of what He has already given to us. Do you?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure for the in-pew collection last weekend was $14,880. The parish Stewardship of Treasure for the 4 Sundays of June was $100,675. It was received as follows:

We Share/OnLine Giving	$47,635
In Pew/Mailed to the Rectory	$53,040

To date, the total received for the mission of the Passionists in Kenya, so wonderfully preached by Fr. Gilbert is $17,056. We will keep you posted if that continues to grow. May God pour out His abundant blessings on you for your generosity in support of the work of the Gospel, both here and in the Missions.

SO WHAT IS QUO VADIS?

Quo Vadis is an opportunity to examine where one's life is going. This camp is designed to help young men understand their baptismal call to holiness and what it means to be a Christian gentleman in today's world. It is for young men who have completed 8th grade up to and including those men who have completed their senior year of high school. The four day camp has outdoor activities, prayer, and a chance to meet other young men from all over the archdiocese.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION (PEA)
CHAPEL IS OPEN 24/7
EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- Catholics need to recover a sense of awe and adoration before the Eucharist, knowing that it is "the real and loving presence of the Lord," Pope Francis told members of the committees organizing the National Eucharistic Revival and the National Eucharistic Congress in the United States.

Jesus spoke of himself as "the living bread which came down from heaven, the true bread that gives life to the world," the pope told the group June 19, just three days after leaving the hospital following abdominal surgery.

"This morning, while I was celebrating the Eucharist, I thought about this a lot because it is what gives us life," the pope said. "Indeed, the Eucharist is God's response to the deepest hunger of the human heart, the hunger for authentic life because in the Eucharist Christ himself is truly in our midst to nourish, console and sustain us on our journey.

1. Zechariah 9:9-10

The second half (9-14) of the Book of Zechariah, from which today's passage is excerpted, reflects the continuing hope of the prophet and his post-exilic contemporaries for a restored Judah under the leadership of an ideal king. This restored relationship is evident in the fact that God addresses Jerusalem as "daughter." And in this restored relationship, Jerusalem will see her king seated on an ass (not a horse, associated with war), associated with peace, a peace which will extend beyond her borders to the whole world.

2. Romans 8:9, 11-13

Baptism brought the Spirit of God (the Father) and of Christ into our lives. That Spirit penetrates and inspires every aspect of who we are and what we do, with our hearts open to God. The power of God to create life, where once there was death, physical and spiritual, is given to those who are open to this Spirit. Because of this, we owe nothing to the flesh and are able to put to death the tendency to fall into sin.

3. Matthew 11: 25-30

The tone and content that runs through these verses is that of wisdom, after which we believers are to seek. In the Synoptic Gospels, Jesus is portrayed as a wisdom teacher and this excerpt is an example of that. Jesus is portrayed as sharing an intimate relationship with God, one based on a mutual knowledge. Since Jesus is wisdom incarnate, it follows that He is the source of wisdom for those who seek Him. This wisdom reflects the revelation of God, which provides guidance for those who follow Him, and it is not a burden for Jesus is with them and for them.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. Do you live your ordinary everyday faith in an extraordinary way. How do you do this?
2. On this journey of life, what are the struggles you face that are hard to carry?
3. Is Jesus giving you the rest you need for your struggles?
