STEWARDSHIP

“All things work for the good of those who love God.” Paul’s words in today’s 2nd Reading challenge us to trust God in all the circumstances of our life. Girded by this trust, we can expend our Time, Talent and Treasure in building the Kingdom. Without this trust, we are tempted to use our time, talent and treasure for our own advancement and purpose. Where do you fit in this picture, trusting in the Lord (and building His kingdom) or trusting only in yourself (and building your own)?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure in the in-pew collection last week was $15,228. God bless your generosity in supporting the work of the Gospel. Using online giving helps the parish continue that work. If you’re not signed up yet as a regular giver, or are a visitor to the parish this weekend, you can use this QR code to make a gift to the parish. Thank you.

Please prayerfully consider joining fellow parishioners by supporting Our Lady of Mt Carmel through a recurring online gift.

- ♦ Visit www.olmcridgetwood.com and click on WeShare Online Giving.
- ♦ Select the collection of your choice.

Romans 11:36

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration (PEA) is quiet adoration of Jesus 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. There is a scheduled Adorer every hour to be with Jesus. We cannot leave Jesus alone in the chapel. If the scheduled Adorer cannot make his/her hour, he/she calls in to find a substitute Adorer to make sure we are praying 24/7.

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration provides the opportunity for us to see our lives in proper perspective. We contemplate on God's love, mercy, divine providence, His call to us (our mission, our purpose), on our own needs/desires as well as of family/friends and of the world. We need this silence with God to reflect on how we are doing in life. Here in Ridgewood and surrounding areas, we often are driven by our desire to win, to excel, to be rich, to be on top of what we do. There is nothing wrong with that because we are to use our talents. But at Adoration, we have a deeper awakening. Many people, even though they are rich and winners or for some when something goes wrong in their lives are still restless. At Adoration, we find peace because we try to relate our desires/achievements to God's will. Are we doing everything we can for the glory of God? If we are doing everything for our glory, we will always be restless, not sure where we are going next. But if we focus on Jesus Christ, on Romans 11:36, all our success and failures will have meaning and we can see the presence of God in our lives,

PEA keeps our eyes, mind and heart on Jesus Christ even for just an hour. We call this a Holy Hour. You will be amazed at what this one hour can do in your life and in the lives of your loved ones. Come and join us. Sign up for an hour that is good for you. You can also try being a substitute if your schedule is irregular.

TODAY'S READINGS

1. 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12

The beginning of Solomon's reign holds a great deal of promise. In a dream, he is invited by God to make a request. Acknowledging his royal power is a gift from God, he asks for the gift of wisdom to rule God's people wisely, thus displaying his understanding that kingship over Israel belongs by right to God. Because Solomon asks for this wisdom, God promises that more will be given him besides. History will prove, however, that Solomon was unworthy of all the gifts God gave him. The end result will be the ultimate division of his kingdom.

2. Romans 8:28-30

As with Solomon in the 1st reading, it is the Father who calls those who love him. They are in God's mind from all eternity and destined to be conformed to the image of the Son. Predestination here is not to be understood as a guarantee. It alludes to the call that comes from God to know and love Him, as Father, Son and Spirit. But it is a call that individuals must freely respond to, and it is the Spirit who is intimately involved with them in that response, both in faith and in action.

3. Matthew 13:44-52

Today's excerpt brings to a conclusion Matthew's lengthy rendering of the parables which comprise the 3rd of the 5 discourses. Many of the themes are highlighted in these final verses. One of the overriding themes present throughout all of the parables has been the mysterious presence and growth of the kingdom of God. In the two parables today the value of the kingdom, its worth above all else in the world, is stressed. Also reiterated in today's excerpt is the judgment—judgment will happen; it is reserved for God; what is required of believers is patience and tolerance. Concluding the entire section, Jesus asks, "have you understood?" The same is asked of you today.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. If God were to ask you the question posed to Solomon, "ask anything of Me," how would you answer?
2. What treasure do you possess that you will not part with?
3. How do you rate the Kingdom of God among the important priorities in your life?
