PLEASE NOTE: WE ARE NOT RUNNING A CREDIT REPORT

In the United States, anyone who has a background check must be told under separate cover that they have rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act. Should a negative background check be returned, this Act gives you the right to request a copy of the report and dispute the information. Additionally, although the company we use is known as a credit reporting agency, we do not use that part of their service.

We only run a criminal background check for those volunteers who are with minors in our programs and ministries. Our only concern is to ensure the safety of our youth. We share your concerns about privacy and personal security and are committed to keeping all information confidential. We would never have a need to run a credit report on any volunteer.

If you would like a letter from the Archdiocese which further explains this, please contact the OLMC Religious Education Office at 201-444-0211
